Suicide: The Ripple Effect

Suicide The Ripple Effect takes you on a journey with Kevin Hines who survived jumping from the Golden Gate Bridge in an attempt to take his life. Since then Kevin has been on a mission to use his story to help others find hope and stay alive. The film features some of the world's leading suicide prevention experts and shines light on people who are using personal experiences with suicide to help others find the hope they need to stay alive.

NASW-PA Chapter is a co-sponsor of this workshop. 2 suicide prevention CE's will be awarded for completion of this course. NASW has been designated as a pre-approved provider of professional continuing education for social workers (Section 47.36), Marriage and Family Therapist (Section 48.36) and Professional Counselors (Section 49.36) by the PA State Board of Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapist, and Professional Counselors. $15 NASW Members; $25 NASW Nonmembers

QPR-Question, Persuade, Refer

QPR stands for Question, Persuade, and Refer — the 3 simple steps anyone can learn to help save a life from suicide. People trained in QPR learn how to recognize the warning signs of a suicide crisis and how to question, persuade, and refer someone to help. In QPR, the general public is educated about known warning signs of a suicide crisis and then taught how to respond.

Comprehensive Behavioral Health Prevention and Intervention

This full day training, presented by Thom Stecher, will look at what we need to know in terms of the current trends in mental health as it pertains to our students. The goal is to broaden this understanding in order to plan for best practices pre-, inter-, and post-vention in working with today's youth.
